

▲ HIDE CAPTION

The U.S. Army uniforms of the three Tammen brothers, from left, John, Peter and Clarence, are on display at the Livingston County War Museum and Dal Estes Education Center. Only Peter Tammen survived his service in World War II. His brothers were killed on different continents days apart. Their three nieces donated the uniforms, medals, ribbons and photos recently to the museum. - Deb Voigts/Daily Leader